DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 26, 27, and 32-49 are allowed. These claims have been renumbered as claims 1-20.
2. Claims 1-25 and 28-31 have been cancelled.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

3. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:

The prior art of record, Delo (Publication No. 20010032199), teaches an installation database may be modified to effect a custom installation of a software product 136. A database transform may be created to record the differences between the original installation database tables and the modified database tables. Subsequently, the modifications recorded in the database transform may be applied to another copy of the original installation database, so that another end-user may obtain the same custom installation without having to manually perform the customization (paragraph [0069]).

Next, the prior art of record, Guay et al. (Patent No. 5907844), teaches relationships between objects can be expressed as dependencies between their attributes (e.g., data dependencies). An attribute can have its value modified to influence the manner in which the database environment responds. Attribute decisions impact, or can be impacted by, the resources available to the database environment (column 7, lines 61-67).

The prior art of record, Delo nor Guay, does not render obvious to one ordinarily skilled in the art at the time of applicant's invention nor anticipate the combination of claimed elements including "determining a plurality of predicted outcomes resulting from the detected change, wherein the plurality of predicted outcomes relate to future operation of the database system; monitoring the database system for an occurrence of at least one of the predicted outcomes" and "displaying to a user an indication of the occurrence of the at least one of the predicted outcomes" as recited in independent claim 26 and similarly recited in independent claims 32, 34, and 36.

The remaining claims, 27, 33, and 37-49, are dependent claims, thus these claims are patently distinct over the art of record for at least the above reasons.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
